

PAUL: A Week in the Life of a Theology Fresher

Time:	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday	Sunday
Morning	9-10am Hebrew Lecture 10-11 Tutorial (every few weeks)	11-12: Study of Religion lecture	9-10am Hebrew Lecture	10-11am Study of Religion Seminar Every 2 weeks	10-11am Christianity in context lecture	Usually have a football match at some point	May have football again
Afternoon	11-12 Old Testament Seminar 1-2 New Testament Seminar (every 2-3 weeks)	4-5:30 Christianity in context seminar (every 3 weeks) Or Butler gym	2-4 Football training/match	12-1 New Testament lecture Grab lunch in town and work on essays	1-2pm Intro to Christian Theology lecture Food shopping	Football match or work/chill in the bar	Either football match or Super Sunday in the bar
Evening	7-8 Football Fitness	Hebrew work	6-7 Dodgeball Rest up!	4-5 Old Testament lecture	Chill with people	9-11pm Badminton training	Hebrew work or final check of essays
Night	Watch Monday Night Football in the bar on the projector and 3D tv. Or Badminton match	6-7pm: Mentor Night – chat to my mentor and get a free meal	Loveshack Wednesday in one of Durham's clubs	6-7pm: Mentor Night – chat to my mentor and get a free meal Rounders in the summer or gym at Butler	Live music event in Butler Bar	Head out to one of Durham's clubs or have a night in the bar	Relax!

LUCY: A Week in the Life of an Archaeology Fresher

Time:	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday	Sunday
Morning	9-12pm: 3 hour practical session, in labs or outside (don't worry, they often end early!)	Lie-in	9-10am: Intro to Archaeology lecture. Never is so much coffee consumed in a single lecture		Do some extra reading for any lecture that you found interesting	Work in one of Durham's museums to get experience in heritage – seriously helps job prospects for archaeologists	Lie-in and pancakes for breakfast
Afternoon	1-2 pm: Human Origins and Diversity – an anthropology module that fits with prehistoric archaeology	2-3pm: People and Cultures – an anthropology module that is really popular with all subjects		Take some notes for the next essay due in	12-1pm: Discovering world prehistory lecture – easily the most interesting in my opinion		Hiking-society hike, either in the local area or somewhere further like Hadrian's Wall
Evening	4-5pm: Applied Arch. Methods (BA) or Scientific Methods (BSc)	Get all the flat together to do an epic Tesco online shop, and share the delivery cost	Copy up the illegible notes of the morning	Green Comm meets to discuss exciting future events and environmental initiatives			Make the most the pod with a really long shower to prepare for Monday
Night	Sleep – 5 contact hours in one day is a serious shock to the system	Studio Tuesday – the official Butler night with 50p entry!	Loveshack Wednesday – unofficial but good Butler night		Open Mic night – have fun and see great performers

JENNA: A Week in the Life of a Law Fresher

Time	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday	Sunday
Morning	Legal Skills lecture: 10am Walk back and make lunch	Contract Lecture 9am Walk back and start on reading/work	EU Law Lecture: 9am Walk back and start tutorial work Make lunch	Wake up and do reading/work I & S Lecture: 12pm	Have a cheeky lie in! UK Con Lecture: 12pm	Football match with Butler Ladies	Lie in!!! Cook a full English breakfast
Afternoon	After lunch start on some reading/work (usually with a pal) Usually a subject tutorial to attend (once or twice a week on varying days)	After lunch continue with work/reading for a couple of hours	Butler Women's Football practice 2-3 or 4	Walk back and make lunch or work at DSU (depending on essay due-dates) Tort Lecture: 4pm	Walk back to college, and work for 3 or 4 hours. Read/watch a DVD alone to chill	Lazy lunch with friends. A couple hours' work, if necessary	Football match with local team, usually from about 12 till 5
Evening	Women's Basketball practice: 5-7 Make dinner with flatmates	Either Squash practice 6-7 or Show choir 6.30-7.30 Make dinner	Football practice with a local team in Stockton 5-9 (including travelling time)	Make dinner with flatmates; Read a book (non-law related)	Either make dinner or get a takeaway	Basketball Practice 6-7 Occasionally volleyball 7-9	Sunday Dinner for one (a slow cooker is necessary!)
Night	Watch a DVD/play board games with flat mates; or head to the bar to play pool	Either Studio (to party!) or watch DVD with flat mates.	Chilled out; complete any outstanding tutorial work. Early bed!!	Shift in the bar, 9-12 Possibly watch a DVD	Bar Crawl (length depending on tiredness!)	Potentially a trip to one of Durham's top clubs.	Usually a board game/ DVD with flat Reasonably early night

SIRI: A Week in the Life of an IR/ Politics Fresher

Time:	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday	Sunday
Morning	Get some lecture reading done in the library (there are always spare seats on level 1)	10-11am: Tutorial – Ideas & Ideologies	10-11am: Lecture – International Security, Interdependence & Organisation	Cheeky lie in, and then get some lecture reading done	9-10am: Tutorial – Global Regions Go to the library between tutorials	Food-shopping in the Durham Indoor Market	Go for a run along the River Wear.
Afternoon	2-3pm: Tutorial – Introduction to Middle East Politics	Welfare Drop-In Meeting 3-4pm: Lecture – Ideas & Ideologies	No lectures! Go for a run or a walk in the Botanic Gardens	12-1pm: Lecture – Introduction to Middle East Politics	2-3pm: Lecture – Democratic Political Systems	Have coffee in one of Durham many cafes with friends (Flat White is best)!	Get ahead on tutorial reading for next week
Evening	5-6pm: Lecture – Theory & History (Best lecturers!) Run back to Butler to get ready	5-6pm: Lecture – Global Regions	Hang out in the flat and make a batch of food (soup/pasta sauce) to keep in the freezer	Meet with group to work on tutorial presentation	Leftover night: use up leftovers in the fridge before tomorrow's shop	Go to the Butler gym, and then bake cookies with friends	JCR Meeting and Sunday Quiz!
Night	Formal! Get dressed up, have a three course meal and post-formal entertainment at Butler	6-7pm: Mentor Night – chat to my mentor and get a free meal 7-8:30pm: Yoga class at Butler	7-8pm: Dance society at Butler Loveshack Wednesday – best night out!	6:30-8:30pm: University French additional language classes	Butler Live: Music event in Butler Bar	Night out to one of Durham's clubs, or a chilled night in Butler Bar	Try to get an early night (but end up visiting another flat and watching a movie)