(Welcome back!!)

Last term review:

- Energy competition
 - Finished 6th – up from 13th last year. Mike rocks
- Green formal
 - Fairly difficult to get people engaged with the formal
 - Origami is a bit of a chore
 - Want to raise awareness of green issue whilst keeping the decorations green themselves
 - Filled up with 2/3rd first years
- Environment Week
 - Movie night and litter pic-nic (likely to be more successful in summer term – possible collaboration with hiking soc) – Green Formal
 - Environmental pledge run through university, Mike Stewart won and got a £5 yum voucher – he will buy food and bring it to the next meeting with his prize, because he is awesome'ness'est
 - Probably works better when college environment week coincides with university environment week; could have green formal the Monday after environment week if that's the way the formals fall

This term:

- Re-freshers fair – plant give out
- Josephine Butler Green Debate – Question time with local party representatives
 - Wednesday 18th February – 6-7pm; Local party representatives from Labour, Conservative, Lib Dem, and Green Party
 - 16th of February to submit the questions
- Fashion Show
 - 21st of February
 - Creation of green clothing for a walk
- Look into the herb garden – possibility in the flower beds by the blocks

AOB:

- Housekeeping lights being continuously left on – could put turn out the 'light the out' stickers on the doors
